The 1978 Spectator

THE 1978 SCEPTER
KANSAS CITY CHRISTIAN SCHOOL
MERRIAM, KANSAS

"Give ear to my
Words, O Lord;
Consider my Meditation."*

Help me to strive
For Thy blessing
In all aspects
Of my endeavors-
The physical and the mental.

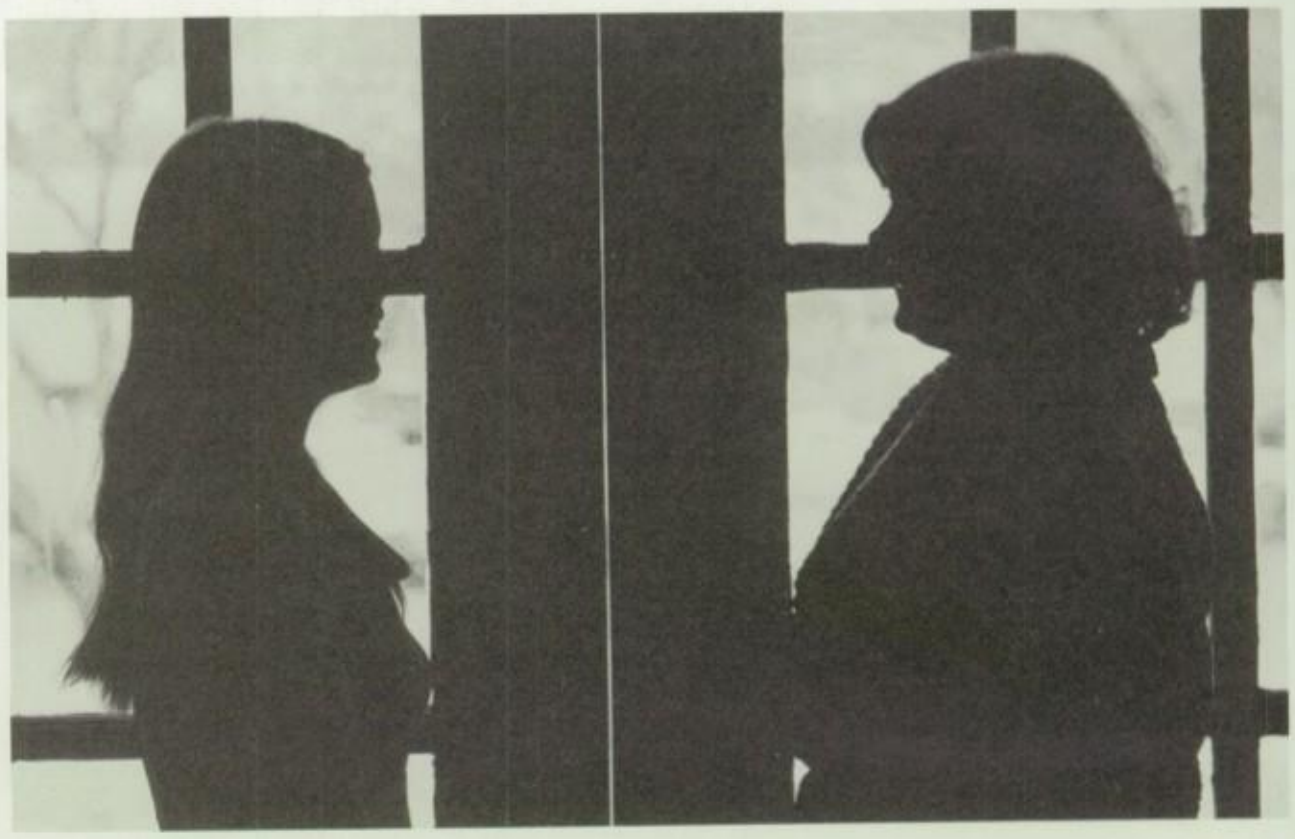
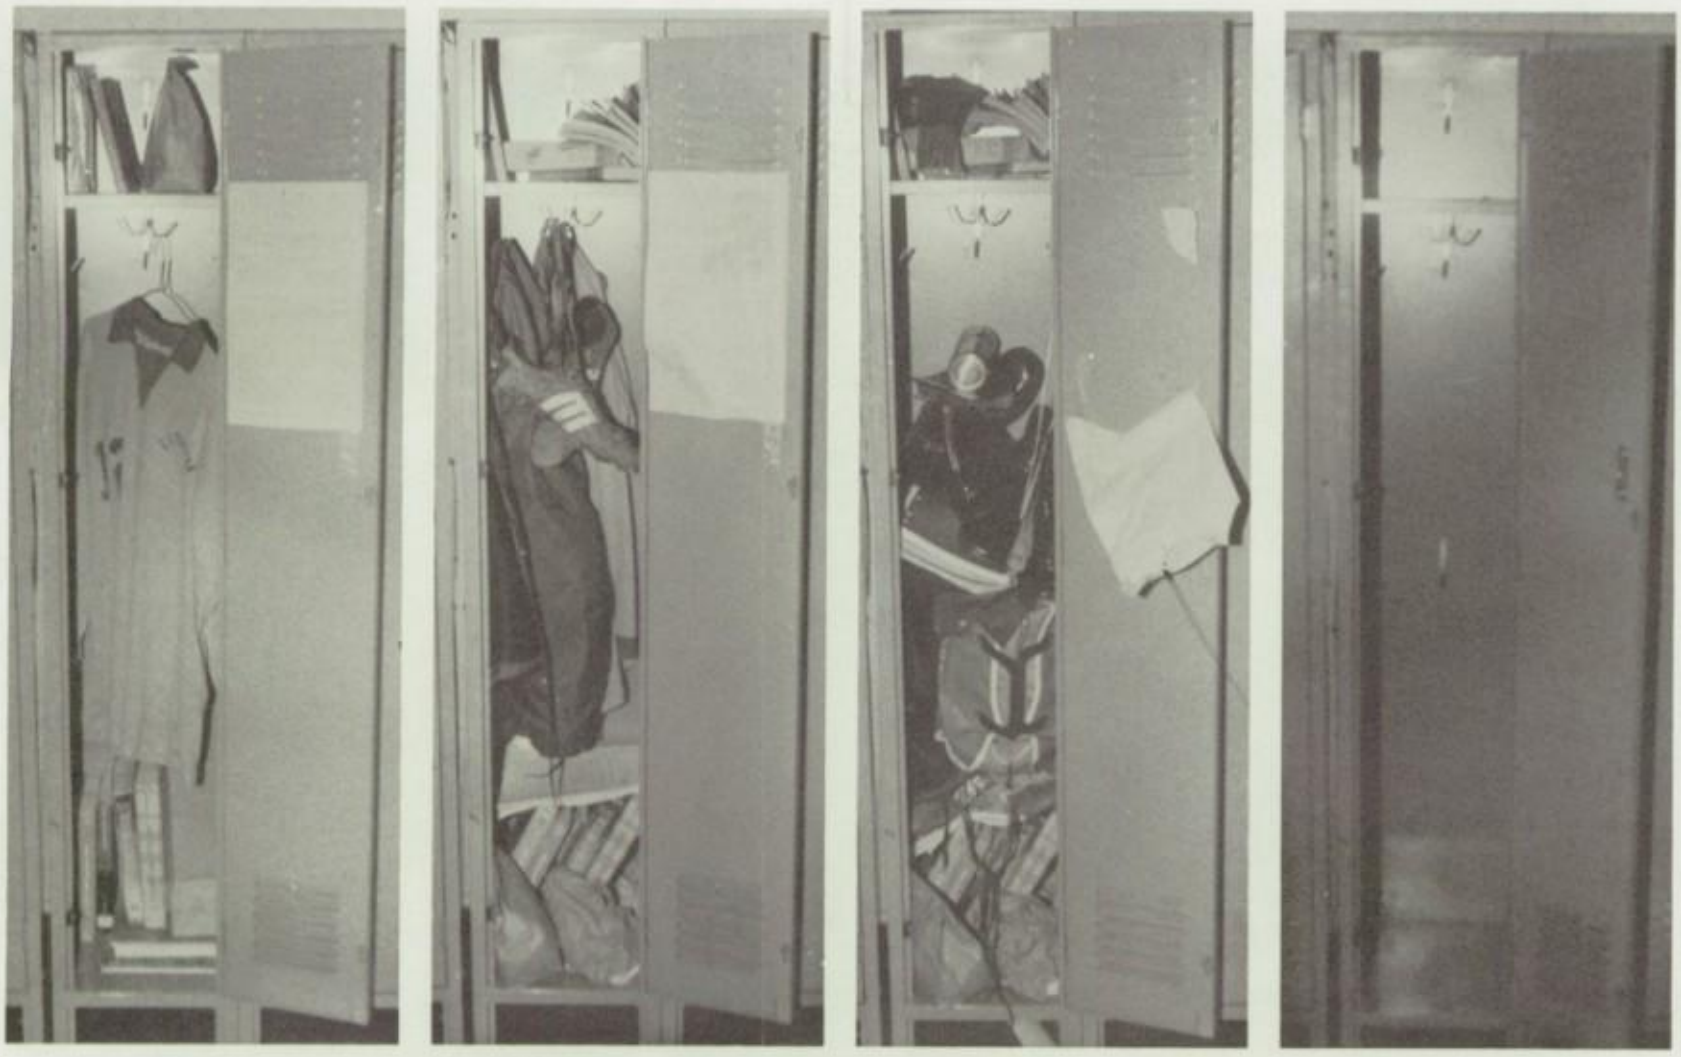
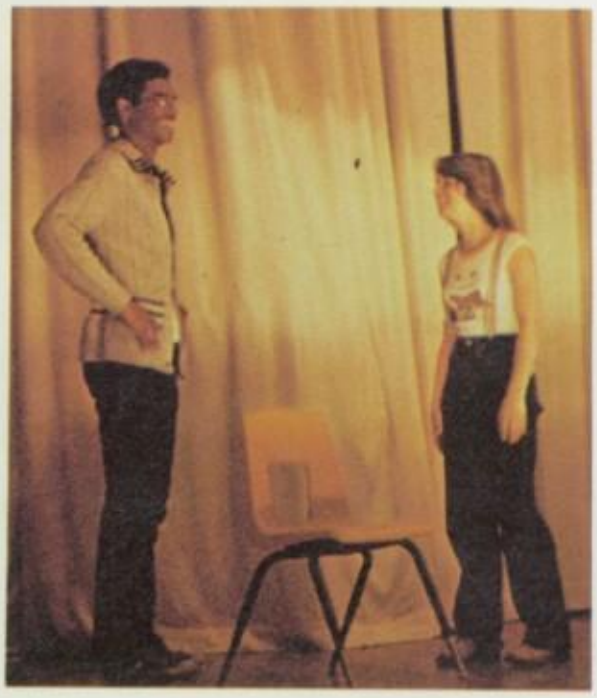
*Psalms 5:1

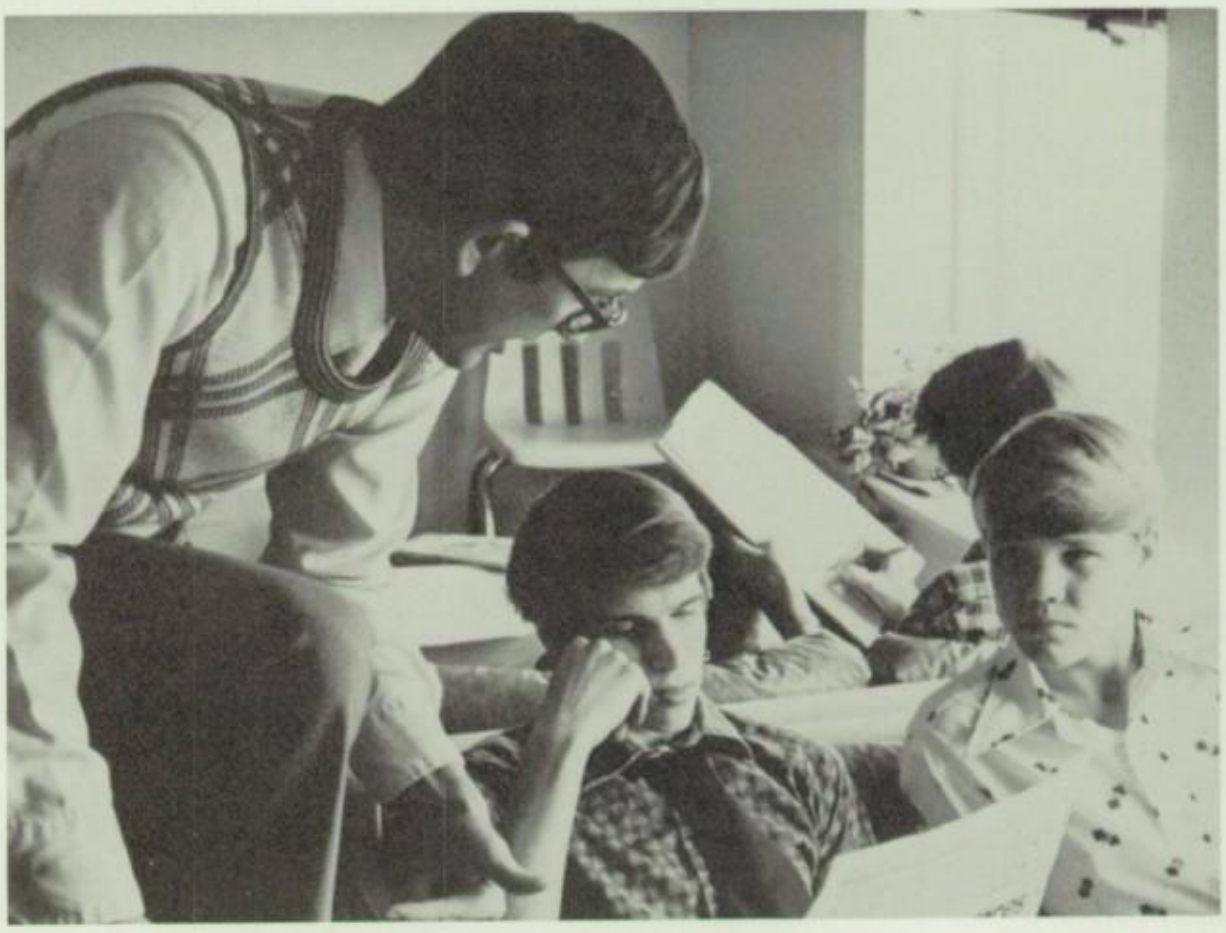




Keep me
From forgetting you
In the ebb and flow
Of daily routine.

Grant me the ability
To see life
From your perspective,
Lest I prize the
Valueless and ignore
The eternal.





Touch my failures
With the breath
Of Thy wisdom;

Allow me to learn
From them. Guide
Me; restrain my Tongue, that I Might not hurt those
Dearest to me.

Grace me with the Knowledge of whom
You would have me
To help and when.

Amen

On August 30, we the Seniors, had our first class meeting.

We set forth many ideas which became goals for the year. The main purpose decided upon was to be of service to the faculty and students in any way possible. At the end of our junior year, we contributed one hundred dollars toward the improvement of the concession stand. This year we have bought a refrigerator, tiled and painted the upstairs concession stand, raised money for chairs, and a popcorn machine, and added some good ideas for future senior classes.

There were times when we became very discouraged. Maybe one of our visions died right in front of our eyes, or an idea that was sure to prosper fell through. There were rough times and there were smooth times, but we never seemed to fall apart.

We've made it through the year, graduated with respect, and had a very successful senior trip. Each Senior had his personal goals; this and the fact that we dedicated our class to the Lord at that first class meeting are the reasons for our success.

Faculty

Dear Students:

We covet God's best for you now and in the days until our Lord returns. We know God's best will bring the greatest joy, peace, and satisfaction. We pray that you have accepted Jesus Christ as your Saviour and yeilded to Him as Lord. We pray you will use the spiritual gifts you have received for service in building and nurturing the body of Christ, His Church.

Sincerely in Christ,

Ronald J. Krestan

Mrs. Elsa Jenks worked this year as the administrative secretary.

Mrs. Eileen Krestan served as registrar and helped in the high school office.

Dear Mrs. Van Sant,

As we reflect over the last five years of our school experience, there are many people who have earned a special status in our memory, but no one else has achieved the level of endearment that will keep pleasant remembrances of you perpetual.

As junior high English students, we were intimidated by your persistent grammar drills and your tenacious demands that we learn.

As members of your "Lab B Family," we discovered that authoritative requirements can be coupled with love, and were only imposed for our profit.

This memorium is insufficient thanks for the hours you devoted to overcoming our obstinate defense of ignorance, and for the words of encouragement you gave to us who would aspire. And because mere words are an inadequate laurel, we would present this dedication only with the prayer that it be supplemented, indeed inundated, by the bountifully flowing blessings of our God.

The SCEPTER Staff

Activities

The annual Junior-Senior Banquet was held April 14th at Joe's Barn. The entertainment, Pam and Arlyne Clark, did a fine job singing. Master of Ceremonies, Dave Schneeberger, kept us laughing with his humorous antics. To the distress of some and enjoyment of others, the Junior Appreciations and Senior Prophecies were exchanged. It was a memorable evening for all.

Mr. John Connelly, a former U.S. representative, was the featured speaker for the annual Booster Banquet. His speech was very challenging to all the supporters and friends of the school who gathered at the Glenwood Manor for an excellent meal and program. Musical entertainment was provided by groups from both elementary and high school. Dr. and Mrs. Donald Griffin planned and coordinated an enjoyable and financially successful banquet.

Underclassmen

Without the school cleanup job, this year's juniors were left to their own ingenuity. The Jr.-Sr. Banquet was funded mostly by the proceeds from the highly successful Jr.-Sr. Play. They also had a candle-sales campaign, a car wash, and several bake sales. With the money remaining after the Banquet, they purchased the recently improved concession stand.

The Varsity Cougars '77-'78 Basketball season went fairly well, the Cougars finishing 14-11. Their league record was 8-2 as they took second place.

The Conference Tournament was definitely the strong point of the season. In the first game, they downed Tri-City to advance to the semi-final round, where they met their match in Christian Challenge of Wichita. In the third-place game against St. Louis, the Cougars went out in style, displaying class basketball as they ran their opponents to the ground. This was an extremely fitting way to end the season.

VARSITY AND PEP CLUB CHEERLEADERS

Cheerleading was never dull because it seemed whenever you came to school there was someone different on the squad. Because of conflicts with schedules, Gay Branham, originally head cheerleader, and Lisa Ferguson had to leave the squad. The replacements chosen were Cathy Johnson and Susan Runion, which brought the squad back to its full five members.

Due to the helpful assistance of Miss Teri Manning, who replaced Mrs. Grauman at semester, the squad was able to win the cheerleading trophy during the Tri-State Christian Tournament at Markoma.

The effort of both Miss Manning and the squad was greatly rewarded.

1. Kathy Phillips really keeps her eyes on her player.
2. Cheryl Harlow and Kathy Phillips get things organized for a pep rally.
3. Cheryl Harlow, Susan Runion, and Cathy Johnson do a cheer for the school pep rally.
4. Cheryl Harlow, Kathy Phillips, and Susan Runion get the kids excited for the game that night.
5. Cathy Johnson gives one of her usual smiles.
6. Pep Club & Varsity Cheerleaders (Back Row): Shannon Swift, Annette Davidson, Anita McHenry, Lisa Davidson; (Middle): Julie Phillips, Becca Butler (President), Becky Moore, Becky Haislip, Linda Schneeberger; (Front): Susan Runion, Cheryl Harlow, Kathy Phillips, Cathy Johnson.
7. Varsity Cheerleaders (Left to Right): Susan Runion, Kathy Phillips, Cheryl Harlow, Cathy Johnson, Celeste Gardner, not pictured. They won the most outstanding cheerleading award at the Tri-State Tournament.

JUNIOR VARSITY BASKETBALL

The Junior Varsity Basketball team, made up mainly of Freshmen, fought its way to a 5-7 record. They struggled early in the year, as they dropped 5 of their first 6 contests, but then they hit a 4-game winning streak to even their record at 5-5.

Mr. Jones, who chose mostly younger players for the team, hopes that this season gave experience to the players he will be needing in the next couple of years.

1. That flash of talent you see is really our own Mike Clarensau.
2. Our team is ready for action when Memo Vidals lets loose of the ball.

JUNIOR HIGH BASKETBALL

The Junior High Basketball team, under the guidance of coaches Jerry Proviance and Rich Gladden, scrapped their way to a 4-5 season record. As usual, the team was short in stature but made up for it with accurate, outstanding shooting.

After dropping their first two games, the boys got their act together as they won two straight. They play good ball for the remainder of the season but had to settle for only two more victories.

The seventh grade team, a subset of the Junior High team played one game against Linwood and won, 24-16.

The eighth grade team also battled Linwood but lost, 20-22.

The experience that the Junior High team provided for the players, should make it easier for them in the next few years.

AND CHEERLEADERS

The Junior High cheerleaders were Marilyn Ramsey, Lezlie West, Kyrita Selzer, and Lesli Bannister. They were led by their captain, Rachel Haddix, who did a great job.

Some comments made by the players as to how the cheerleaders performed: Cliff Becker—"The cheerleaders were so distracting, the team almost forgot to play basketball. They were great!" Kevin Hutcheson—"Superb!"

Even though the boys lost a few of their games, they maintained good spirit and sportsmanship.

GIRLS VARSITY BASKETBALL

The '77-'78 Basketball season was the best season yet for the Kansas City Christian Cougarettes. Having a well-balanced team, the Cougarettes played with much teamwork, which is vital for a good team. In league competition, the Cougarettes stood 12-0, taking first place in the Heart of America Christian Girls' Basketball Conference and Tournament.

At the conclusion of the regular season, the girls went to Tahlequah, Oklahoma, for the Tri-State Christian Girls' Tournament, where they placed fourth.

The Cougarettes final season record was 15-3, which was the best record ever for the team and, with only one player graduating, there is an abundance of hope for future years.

SOCCER

Finally it happened. All those years of practice paid off! After four years of being considered inferior in local competition, the Cougars came on to surprise many of the area powerhouses. Experiencing their first winning season, they beautifully mastered the B Division of the Intra-State Soccer League with a 7-0-1 record. In addition to their over-whelming division title, the Cougars gave many larger schools more than they could handle.

Blending experience with surprising new talent, they posted an 11-5-1 overall record under their spirited coach, Tom Pierce. The team played many emotional games, and climaxed their season by winning the annual Springfield Christian School Tournament.

All in all, it was an excellent season, and with many players returning, there is a bright outlook for next year when they try to hang on to the division title.

1. Mike Clarensau displays his "quick foot" in a game against Barstow.

2. Tracy Painter gets psyched up for a big game.

3. 4. Memo Vidals makes a point of burning the opposition.

5. Coach Tom Pierce poses with his best friend, the water jug.

6. One of the reasons for the Cougars' success was the hustle of Wing, Wayne Selzer.

7. Teamwork was the name of the game this year as Tim Smith and Memo Vidals demonstrate.

Organizations

STUCO

Listing the accomplishments and failures of the student council is a relatively easy task because 1978 was filled with many accomplishments and very few failures. In order to find a group of studnets that make up a successful student council, you look for a group that is working together doing their job and assisting whenever called upon. That is exactly the type of student council we had. I thank each one for his incentive, exuberance, and patience with me. The representatives were fine representatives of what this school stands for.

CHOIR

This was one of the greatest years for the choir department.

The Concert Choir put on Fall, Christmas, and Spring concerts, and also travelled to Grace College in Omaha, Nebraska, for a Choir Festival.

The Jr. High Choir became the all-school choir at semester, and included all students who wished to be involved in the music program. They performed very well at the three seasonal concerts.

ABUNDANT LIFE

The Abundant Life musical ensemble and Male Quartet has several purposes, the three most important being to glorify God, to minister in area churches and to our school family, and to train young people in this aspect of Christian service. The group - all very gifted for this ministry - has been a blessing to everyone who has heard them. They have performed an original musical, "I Know Whom I Have Believed", in churches, sung in school concerts, P.T.F. meetings and student assemblies. All but three of the group are graduating seniors so Mr. Doran, the director, will have to build again.

CHRISTIAN CHARACTER BUILDING

Christian maturity is being mighty in spirit and competent in service. Calvary seeks to develop Christ-like behavior and attitude in these areas:

Toward self—discovering personal worth and God's design for ones life.

Toward others—discovering biblical authority and developing a servant's heart.

Toward God—discovering the joy of yielding ones personal rights and allowing the Holy Spirit to "renew a right spirit in me"

Phil Boehr loves music ...and he loves kids.

So he decided to become a music teacher. That way he could share his God-given interest and ability in music with young people eager to learn.

Phil is also a graduate of Grace College of the Bible. Surprised?

You shouldn't be. Because at Grace we don't believe there's any such thing as a part-time Christian. That's why at Grace, you'll learn to live a full-time Christian life. A life pleasing to God, every minute of it. Whether you're going to be a minister or whether you eventually take further training to become a doctor, a lawyer, a business executive or a farmer.

Or music teacher, like Phil Boehr.

JOKE TIME

With David 'n' David

David: Do you have any religious views?
David: No, but I've got some dandy snapshots of Niagara Falls.

David: Did you know that I don't have all my toes on one foot?
David: Really?
David: That's right, I've got five on one foot and five on the other.

David: The other day, I went to the doctor to complain about insomnia.
David: What'd he do?
David: He sent me home to sleep it off.

David: Did you hear about the mean warden?
David: No, what about him?
David: He put a thumbtack on the electric chair.

David: The doctor is here to see you.
David: Tell him to go away, I'm too sick to see anybody today.

Joke Time was brought to you by David Schneeberger and David Baldwin.
